Vienna, Dec. 11.-The "Neue Freie Presse" has a dispatch from Constantinople, saying that the representatives of the Powers have informed the iltan that they do not intend to make practical use of the firmans granted for the passage of additional guardships into the Bosphorus. London, Dec. 11 .- The correspondent of the United Press in Constantinople telegraphs, under date of December 10, that the Porte has granted exequaturs to Major Williams and Major Bulman, the newly appointed British Vice-Consuls at Van and Sivas, and also to a British Vice-Consul at Harpoot. The Vice-Conwill start for their posts immediately.

In the appeal made to the Sultan by M. Nelldoff, the Russian Ambassador, in the name of the Czar, he strongly advised the Sultan to concede the demands for extra guardships, in order to avoid magnifying the matter, as, he assured His Majesty, the demand would be persisted in

The negotiations for a Government loan of £1,000,000, secured by the revenues of the Turkish Tobacco Regie, have fallen through.

It is learned, the correspondent says, that Said Pacha, in reply to the Sultan's demand that he leave the British Embassy and return to his nome, informed His Majesty that he was willing home, informed His Majesty that he was willing to live in any place outside of Turkey that the Sultan might appoint, and would also pledge thimself to keep entirely aloof from politics, being, in view of the circumstances, extremely anxious to leave the country with his family. To this the Sultan replied that he was not willing that Said should put himself outside of his, the Sultan's, power, as he was the custodian of too many secrets.

result was that Said received the assent of the Sultan to his living anywhere within the empire, together with the imperial assurance that His Majesty would not compel him to hold office, and upon this assurance Said returned to his e letter to Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambas-mador, thanking him for his protection and hos-pitality. Sir Philip wrote a letter to the Sultan expressing hope that Said Pacha would not be harmed.

"The Standard" to-morrow will print a Constantinople dispatch, saying that the Porte is absolutely deserted, and that the Ministers are living day and night in the palace, where confusion reigns supreme.

A dispatch from Constantinople, dated December 12, says that Sald Pacha's return to his house was contrary to the public expectance. He drove thither in the carriage of Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambassador, accompanied by the drago-

British Ambassador, accompanied by the drago-man of the British Embassy. On the same even-ing the secret police, who had been stationed around the Embassy, were withdrawn. Said Pacha, in his letter to Sir Philip Currie, dwelt upon his forty-three years of public service, including five Vizi-rates, and said that, now that his health was exhausted, he was unable to bear the burdens of the post that the Sultan wished him to assume. His Malesty had afterward of his health was exhausted, he was unable to dear the burdens of the post that the Sultan wished him to assume. His Majesty had afterward of-fered him a special appointment in the Palace, to direct important affairs of state. Unhappily, his health did not allow him to do this. Said intended to pass one night at the Embassy, in which belief he wrote immediate. at the Embassy, in which belief he wrote immediately to the Grand Vizier, expressing the hope that his request would be favorably regarded. On the same evening, however, the Sultan sent his Foreign Minister and the President of the Council to Sir Philip Currie and informed Said that His Majesty continued to hold his former Grand Vizier in high favor and had entire confidence in his fidelity. On the following day the Sultan gave similar assurances to the other Embassies, expressing a desire that Said should not

After the decision of the Porte to issue an irade permitting the passage of extra guardships through the straits of the Dardanelles, the for-eign diplomats held a meeting, at which they decided that the presentation of an ultimatum to the Porte was needless, inasmuch as the fir-mans demanded had been granted.

The delegates of the workmen, it is now said, declined to accept the terms offered to them by the shipbuliders' representatives, and the matter will therefore be submitted to a vote of the strikers.

BEBEL DENOUNCES THE KAISER. TURBULENT SCENES IN THE REICHSTAG DURING

THE SOCIALIST'S SPEECH. Dec. 11.-There was an exciting scene the Reichstag to-day on the occasion of the de-livery of a speech by Herr Bebel, one of the So-callst leaders, in regard to the recent prosecution of Socialists and the closing of the Socialist unions by the Government. In the course of his speech Herr Bebel made a violent attack on the Emperor cause of the speeches delivered by His Majesty on Sedan Day and more recently at Breslau, referring to the Kaiser as "a certain somebody.

President von Buol-Gerenberg called Herr Bebel order, but the latter persisted in continuing his sued, in the midst of which Herr Singer's voice was heard above the din, crying, "We are insulted was heard above the din, crying, "We are insulted."
When quiet was finally restored the President threatened to stop Herr Bebel entirely unless he confined his remarks within the limits of decency and parliamentary rule, whereupon Bebel retorted;
"How is it possible to omit mention of the Katser from discussion of the question of abolition of the Lege Mejeste law?"

"How is it possible to discussion of the question of abolition of the from discussion of the question of abolition of the Less Mejeste law?"

Herr Bebel then proceeded in a passionate speech to criticise the Government's recent prosecution of Socialists. He declared that the present conditions prevailing in civilized States precluded the possibility of a revolutionary party obtaining a victory foretbly, and argued that, therefore, agitation by means of speeches and the dissemination of literature was justifiable. General Bronsart von Schellendorf, Imperial Minister of War, interrupting, declared, amid a tremendous uproar on the part of the Socialists, who tried to drown his voice, that during the Sedan fêtes the Socialists were dirty ink-slingers. Their infamy was unable to soil the memory of the great Kaiser; but, nevertheless, the army would never lorget the deprayity of the Socialists on that occasion.

Vienna, Dec. 11.-A man was arrested on grounds of the Hofburg, the residence of the Austrian princes, this morning, having in his possession a large ball which was supposed to be a bomb. He was taken to the police station, where it was discovered that the "bomb" was nothing more dangerous than a ball used for bowling. When asked to explain his presence at the Hofburg the man answered incoherently. He was identified as a Vienna tailor, and is presumably insane.

THE HAMBURG-AMERICAN COMPANY. Hamburg, Dec. 11.-The Hamburg-American Steamline of steamers between New-York and Brazilian ports, beginning January 1. The freight business of the new line will be transacted through Funch, Edye & Co., of New-York.

Mr. Boas, the agent of the Hamburg-American Packet Company, yesterday confirmed the dispatch from Hamburg, but said he had no details of the matter. At the offices of French, Edye & Co., who are the agents of the line, it was said that the dispatch was true, though premature. It was denied that the Hamburg-American Line was going into partnership with Mr. Sloman, the owner of the Hammonia Line, but it intended to operate the line and probably make the service fortnightly instead of monthly. Nothing, it was said, could be announced certainly at present.

DUNRAVEN'S PARTING SHOT.

Liverpool, Dec. 11.-An interview was had with abled steamer Germanic, just previous to the de-parture of that vessel to-day. While refusing to speak about the relative merits of Valkyrie III and the Defender, he said that he wished it to be distinctly understood that his going to New-York was a perfectly voluntary act on his part and that his sole object in making the journey was to secure a fatr and impartial inquiry by the committee of the New-York Yacht Club into the charges brought by him against the defender of the America's Cup.

The reported departure of Lord Dunraven for America and his intention to appear before the Investigation Committee of the New-York Yacht Club, caused little talk in yachting circles yesterday, and members of the club saw nothing in the report worth talking about. Among the candidates for the Yacht Club to be balloted for at the next election is Chauncey M. Depew. The meeting will be held in February.

SALISBURY CALLED IT PROTECTION.

Dr. Elliott, who presided at the Washington Episcopal Convention which on Friday last elected Dr. Satter es to the bishopric, was spokesman, and presented to the doctor the official communication informing him of the cail. For the laymen Mr. Davis urged Dr. Satterlee to accept, and also made a strong piea in behalf of the needs of the new diocese at Washington.

lively fashion. O. E. Clark, of Greensburg, is the leader of the silver wing, and he thus expressed himself:

> NO ASSASSINS TO WASTE. From The Chicago Evening Post.

From The Chicago Evening Post.

The viceroy was disturbed. He had received unwelcome news.

"Your Highness," said the trembling menial, "another European warship has arrived."

The viceroy sighed; but he knew what to do.

"Execute another assassin!" he exclaimed.

He sighed again.

"If they spring many more warships on me," he continued, "they will exhaust the list of those who were implicated in the missionary massacres, but I guess I can stand it as long as they can, unless."

"Unless what." asked the trembling menial.

"Unless they run in ringers on me. I wonder if this ship has ever been here before."
